Pursuant to the Qualified Mortgage Rule as implemented by the CFPB on January 10, 2014, points and fees must include fees retained by a creditor, loan originator, or affiliate of either. In accordance with these requirements, LHFS Wholesale now requires all Brokers to provide a list of affiliated service providers used in a mortgage transaction.

By listing affiliated entities and signing below, Broker certifies that all listed entities, principals, and ownership interests are complete and accurate as of the above date, and are the only affiliated entities with which the Broker has affiliated businesses. Additionally, by signing below, Broker certifies that they will disclose any changes to affiliated entities, their principals, and/or ownership percentages to LHFS Wholesale by provided an updated Affiliated Business Certification within a reasonable time after any changes are made. Failure to disclose or use of affiliated business entities without the disclosure of such relationship(s) may subject transactions to repurchase.

Please list any entity for which your organization or any principal of your organization has an ownership interest (in any amount), control, common control or influence over the operation, processes or board members. Please attach additional pages if needed.

Please check here if there is no Affiliated Entity.
